BRYAN LEISTER | Artist Statement

I am interested in creating digital and analog experiences that inhabit a space between reality and the uncanny. If the work I create can implicate the viewer in questioning the reality (or absurdity) of things, I consider it a success. My medium of choice is code, ultimately realized through installations, animations, digital images, electro-acoustic audio, video games and digital prints.